Dear Professor Glavič

I wish to extend a warm welcome to the University of Maribor to the Age-Friendly University Global Network.

The University of Maribor commitment to ageing reflected in its endorsement of the Ten Principles of an Age-Friendly Network brings additional strength to the network. This is a rapidly growing network (66 members currently) with a shared challenge to promote an inclusive approach to healthy and active ageing through research, enhanced learning opportunities for people across generations, and through innovations that address specific issues affecting older adults.

Over the coming months, DCU will further drive the process of developing the Network, and we look forward to our engagement with the University of Maribor. In the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact Ms Christine O'Kelly, DCU's AFU Coordinator to explore issues of common interest.

Yours sincerely
